CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

By the grace of God, Qatar Stock Exchange ended the year 2013 having made good progress along its path towards achieving its stated goals.

2013 was a remarkable year full of achievements, on which we will continue to build by making further efforts to consolidate and enhance the firm foundations and infrastructure of the capital market sector. We believe that achieving QSE's goals is in the best interest of the national economy and the aspiration to make it an open and prosperous economy.

The MSCI and Standard & Poor's upgrade of Qatar Stock Exchange to Emerging Markets status and the attainment of full membership of the World Federation of Exchanges (WFE) were the most prominent developments in 2013. These achievements were also supported by the continuing efforts of Qatar Stock Exchange at the local level to raise investor awareness and promote a culture of investment among citizens and residents. Qatar Stock Exchange continues to urge more private companies, including family businesses, to become publicly listed on the Exchange in order to provide more opportunities for investors.

We will continue to build on the progress that has been made. As we head into the future, we will remain focused on best practices in global financial markets with an emphasis on sustainable growth. Qatar Stock Exchange will continue to empower its human resources and develop their skills and capabilities as they are our most valuable asset. Most importantly, we will be whole-heartedly dedicated to our shareholders and the national economy we serve, a key pillar of which is the growth of the stock market and its listed companies. This is the wheel of a diversified and prosperous Qatari economy, a major component of the Qatar National Vision, which is inspired by the prudent foresight of His Highness the Emir Sheikh Tamim Bin Hamad Al Thani.

Our message is clear to all market participants, whether traders or issuers, that the Qatari market is promising and full of opportunities. We are totally confident that Qatar Stock Exchange, taking advantage of what has already been accomplished, will continue to make progress towards achieving a leading position among the region's markets. Qatar Stock Exchange is committed to maintaining the highest standards of excellence in financial services through the efforts of its Qatari staff, whose experience has been enhanced through many years of dedicated service in this national institution.

Dr. Hussain Bin Ali Al Abdulla
Acting Chairman

The MSCI and Standard & Poor's upgrade of Qatar Stock Exchange into Emerging Markets status as well as the full membership of the World Federation of Exchanges (WFE) were the most prominent developments in 2013.

CEO'S MESSAGE

Qatar Stock Exchange was established in 1995, and became operational in 1997. Over the last 15 years, Qatar Stock Exchange has evolved to become one of the most important stock markets in the Gulf region and has achieved a number of significant milestones. The number of listed companies, which include leading Qatari entities that play a significant role in the national economy, has increased as has the number and sophistication of investors. The Exchange continues to work hard to attract foreign investors by providing reliable and secure trading and settlement infrastructure with the aim of boosting liquidity and allowing others to benefit from the strength and growth of the Qatari economy. This continuing evolution has resulted in Qatar Stock Exchange becoming the second largest stock exchange in the region in terms of market capitalization and the best stock market in the region in terms of dividend yields, which exceed those paid in the largest global stock markets.

Qatar Stock Exchange has continued to work towards its goals of achieving advanced standards of service comparable with or exceeding those offered by other regional and international markets. The most significant achievement of 2013 was the upgrade of the Qatari market from frontier to emerging market status by MSCI and Standard and Poor's. Our market will now be included in the same class as those of other emerging internationally important economies such as Brazil and India. These upgrades have considerable significance, as they are a reflection of the growing confidence that global financial institutions have in Qatar Stock Exchange and Qatar as an investment destination. This confidence will, over time, result in significant investment fund flows being attracted to the market from the international investor community.

The diversification of products continues to be an important strategic objective for Qatar Stock Exchange. It is a key component of our mission to provide investors with the most appropriate tools to meet their investment needs. In 2011, as part of the first phase of this diversification, treasury bills were admitted to trading on QSE, followed in June 2013 by the listing of Qatari government bonds. As part of the second phase, there are plans to launch a varied range of Exchange Traded Funds, Sukuk and corporate bonds, further enhancing the range of products available to both institutional and retail investors.

Working in cooperation with legislators and regulatory agencies, the Exchange has also launched a number of initiatives geared towards promoting liquidity and depth in the market. Qatar Stock Exchange have also worked on launching other initiatives, including preparations for the admission to trading of a Shari'a-compliant ETF, which follows the successful launch of a new Shari'a-compliant index for Islamic stocks developed in cooperation with Al Rayan Investment.

In terms of listings, Qatar Stock Exchange continues with its efforts to encourage more companies, including family businesses, to become publicly listed, with the aim of enhancing corporate transparency and expanding the number and range of opportunities available to investors in the Qatari market. The Exchange has also cooperated with existing listed companies to promote and ensure greater compliance with the principles of disclosure and transparency.

Qatar Stock Exchange has continued to work towards its goals of achieving advanced standards of service comparable with or exceeding those offered by other regional and international markets.

The Exchange is also urging the legislature and regulators to consider increasing the percentage of free float shares available to international investors wishing to invest in Qatar.

Further recognition of the technical, regulatory and operational progress made during 2013 was demonstrated by the acceptance of Qatar Stock Exchange as a full member of the World Federation of Exchanges (WFE), after it had been a Correspondent Member for many years.

With this achievement, we have now become part of an organization that represents the exchange business worldwide and which promotes fair, transparent, well regulated markets that play an important role in the economies of their respective countries. The acceptance of Qatar Stock Exchange into the WFE fold was as a result of the developments and commitments to best international practice made by the Exchange aimed at providing better services to both local and international investors.

Qatar Stock Exchange has continued to implement educational programs aimed at promoting awareness among investors through the provision of regular workshops, seminars and courses. For bonds, Qatar Stock Exchange held free educational seminars in both Arabic and English to promote awareness among retail investors. For share trading, Qatar Stock Exchange signed an agreement with the Faculty of Islamic Studies at the University of Hamad Bin Khalifah to hold training sessions on technical analysis methods in both Arabic and English for retail investors in Qatar. This agreement covered the provision of periodic courses and awareness seminars for domestic investors, to promote a culture of securities trading and investment and to contribute to the development of investment skills of both current and potential investors. They are also designed to introduce investors to the products traded in the market and other aspects of financial and technical analysis in relation to the performance of listed companies and the market as a whole. The aim is to continue to attract domestic investors, both citizens and residents, to investment opportunities in the Qatari stock market so that they too can contribute to and benefit from the economic growth of the country.

None of these achievements would have been possible without the continuous support of the Board of Directors of Qatar Stock Exchange and the tireless efforts of all managers and employees focusing on the development of this national institution, which is and will remain a prominent economic beacon in our youthful state under the wise leadership of His Highness the Emir Sheikh Tamim Bin Hamad Al Thani.

** KCBK: As described in its Articles of Association, Al Khaliji Bank has different ownership limits according to nationality. Qatari nationals' ownership is designed to be not less than 51% of the bank's capital. Currently, Qatari nationals hold 84% of total shares (302,458,357 shares). The second grouping is the citizens from Kuwait, Oman, UAE, and Bahrain, who may own up to 49% of the bank's capital (current holdings stand at 13.90% of total capital, 50,188,511 shares). The third category is the other nationalities that may own up to 25% of the free float of the company (current holdings at 2%).

*** QGR: Some investors used to hold the Qatari nationality and then changed their nationality later on and as a result the actual foreign ownership level at this stage might be greater than the stipulated 25% free float.

**** QGMD: Qatar German for Medical Devices. The maximum individual ownership limit for Non-Qatari investors is 10% of the capital i.e., 115,465,30 shares.

***** QOIS: In this instance foreign ownership refers to Non Qatari and Non Omani investors who may hold up to 25% of free float (15% of total capital).
